

River JOURNAL
A MONTHLY NEWS AND VIEWS PUBLICATION
Reaching every household and business in Sleepy Hollow, Tarrytown & Irvington

Dear Chamber Members,

River Journal has reached every household, business and Post Office box in Tarrytown and Sleepy Hollow on a monthly basis for over 8 years. During that time River Journal has written about local government, the public schools, new and expanding businesses, and a host of quality-of-life issues focusing on the people and places of Tarrytown and Sleepy Hollow.

With the June issue mailed this weekend, we welcome the residents and business owners of Irvington. The decision to increase our circulation was driven by the fact that we in Tarrytown and Sleepy Hollow have a lot in common with the historical river town on our southern border. Tarrytown children south of Route 119 (White Plains Road) attend Irvington schools. Sleepy Hollow, Tarrytown and Irvington are replete with an historical richness, drawing visitors from around the world. Equally important is the fact that a strong business community is of paramount importance to all three communities.

River Journal is pleased to play an integral part in keeping residents aware of local businesses and their services, through advertisements, editorials and special announcements. Whether in print or on the web at riverjournalonline.com, we remain committed to a relevant publication editorially and one which is pleasing to the eye as well. Should members have any questions or comments, please email us at riverjournal@aol.com or simply pick up the phone. We can be reached at 631-7021.

Sincerely,
Robert Bonvento
